ELPS 695:
CRITICAL ISSUES
IN HIGHER EDUCATION

MONDAYS THIS FALL
5:45 - 8:35 PM

Study Contemporary issues in American Higher Education -- a critical analysis and understanding of the major issues confronting higher education such as undergraduate, graduate, and professional student's issues; higher education expenditures, revenue, and student debt; issues in governance and administration of higher education as well as internal and external pressures on the institution and its leadership, administration, and faculty; and an examination of the future of higher education.
