

NOMINATIONS FOR THE EDUCATORS HALL OF HONOR

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, HEALTH, AND HUMAN SCIENCES THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE, KNOXVILLE

NOMINATIONS MAY BE MADE IN THE FOLLOWING CATEGORIES:

- 1. An individual educator who has made or is making an outstanding contribution to the field. This includes the K–12 level, college level, counseling, administration, or any related education field. The minimum amount of the contribution for a nominee in this category is $1,000.
- 2. An individual in the community who is not considered an educator, but whose contribution to education is highly significant and who has had or is having a significant impact on the field of education. The minimum amount of the contribution for a nominee in this category is $1,000.
- 3. A group (such as a school) that has had unusual success with student learning or a civic group that has made a highly unusual contribution to education, such as the provision of scholarship funds for an at-risk group of students or the funding of scholarships that would help deserving students become educators. The minimum amount of the contribution in this category is $5,000.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Educators must have made unquestionable contributions to teaching and/or other educational fields and have received school or community recognition for those contributions.

Community leaders must have used their leadership roles to improve education (for example, via scholarships for teachers/other educators, programs, and/or significant funding for at-risk students who otherwise would not be able to earn a diploma and/or degree).

A group must have an active mission of raising funds and/or establishing programs to help provide education to individuals or groups who otherwise would not be able to further their educations. Such a group might include school personnel who have been recognized for innovative achievements in education such as an outstanding reading program, a peer-counseling program, and/or other noteworthy and recognized endeavors.
