I am a student at the University of Tennessee who meets (or will meet by end of the current term) the requirements of a minimum 3.3 grade point average and completion of 90 credit hours toward my Bachelor's degree. I am requesting that the courses listed above or alternate courses as approved by departmental faculty will count toward both undergraduate and graduate credit. According to university policy on accelerated combined bachelor's/master's programs, I understand that I may earn a maximum of 9 credit hours at the graduate level during my undergraduate studies, which can be counted for both my bachelor's and master's degrees.

Instructions for Requesting Graduate Credit and Selection into the Accelerated Combined Program:

1. Consult the departmental coordinator of the graduate program concentration to which you are applying to confirm process deadlines and concentration-specific requirements.
2. Complete this form in consultation with the coordinator of the graduate program concentration to which you are applying, listing only the courses for which you anticipate requesting graduate credit.
3. Obtain a signature from the coordinator of the graduate program concentration to which you are applying.
4. Submit the form to the departmental director of graduate studies for signature. Once signed, the director will submit to the Graduate School for final approval.
5. For each term you are registering for courses for graduate credit, you must complete and submit the Senior Requesting Graduate Credit form by the deadline for undergraduate final registration. This will be the formal request to receive graduate credit for these specific courses. You will need to enter the netids of the graduate concentration coordinator (as your faculty advisor) and the course instructor(s).
6. Apply for the graduate program through the online Graduate School application. The entry term must be after completion of your bachelor's degree. Consult with the departmental coordinator of the graduate concentration or the director of graduate studies for details.
